

REPENTANCE - A RISKY BUSINESS

2 Samuel 12

COLTON WILLEY

This discussion guide is designed for Saylorville Church Community Groups as they live and learn together each week. The sermons and guides can be found at www.saylorvillechurch.com/sermons.

CONNECT WITH YOUR GROUP (10-15 MINUTES)

- The sermon opens with the idea that life is filled with risks. What kinds of risks do you take easily—and which ones do you avoid? Why?
- Pastor Colton framed the central question this way: “Is repentance worth the risk?” Before discussing the passage, how would you honestly answer that question for yourself?

APPLY THE BIBLE (45-60 MINUTES)

- Remember what you talked about last time. Is there anything you need to follow up on this week?
- Review your Sermon Notes together. What is one thing that sticks out to you about what you learned?
- Read this week’s passage together. In his message, Pastor Colton directed us to ask ourselves a weighty question, “Is repentance worth the risk in my life? Why or why not?”

Three Keys Required for Repentance:

1. Speak Up (2 Samuel 12:1-7)

- God uses loving confrontation to bring hidden sin into the light.
- Why do you think God chose to confront David through Nathan rather than dealing with him privately? What does that reveal about how God often works?
- Proverbs 28:23 says rebuke leads to greater favor than flattery. Why does that feel counterintuitive to us?
- Are you currently positioned to receive (or give) loving confrontation? What makes that difficult?

2. Fess Up (2 Samuel 12:7-13)

- True repentance owns sin without excuses or blame.
- David says, “I have sinned against the Lord.” What stands out to you about how simple and direct his confession is?
- Why do you think we often add explanations, justifications, or comparisons when confessing sin?
- Psalm 51 says David’s sin was “ever before” him. How does hidden sin tend to surface emotionally or relationally over time?
- Is there an area of your life where you’ve been managing sin instead of confessing it?

3. Look Up (2 Samuel 12:10-24)

- Repentance means surrendering our crown and trusting God with both grace and consequences.
- God forgives David but does not remove the consequences of his sin. Why is it important to hold both truths together?
- David worships after the child dies. What does that reveal about his view of God?
- Some people struggle more with accepting grace than accepting discipline. Which do you struggle with more—and why?
- David names his son Solomon—“peace.” Why do you think peace is the outcome God highlights after repentance?

Receive and Respond: What will I do because of what I just heard?

PRAY TOGETHER (5-15 MINUTES)

- Ask God to reveal to you where He might be inviting you to confront, accept confrontation, or confess.
